We are the Mato-Toyela Family and for over 26 years, have specialized in traditionally made Native American Flutes, which means that they are a copy of a copy of a copy... well, you get the picture. These days I do make more contemporary and modern flutes also. That is to say, upon request I will tune flutes to 440A, 444A, 449A, 452Hz, although when I prefer to make as a copy of a traditional item. All of our flutes are made by us, by hand and one at a time with the utmost respect and love for the wood, the environment and the art of flute making and most definitely are not an imitation! Please be sure to watch our YouTube videos to see how to make flutes and how to play them. Though our prices seem very low, we do create some of the most beautiful sounding instruments around. If there is something you are looking for specifically and do not see it, please feel free to ask!

*Recent updates:
Jaguar Whistles now available online as well as our book The Art Of Native American Flute Making! It was a lot of work to put 20 years of flute making into one book! More sound samples are now added to our info page. Shipping times are currently 7 to 14 days for most orders. International customers may expect a slightly longer wait depending on their customs department.
